Self-Guided Hike: I-Spy!

Oct. 1-31

Can you crack the code, discover clues hidden around the trail to find an anagram, and solve this puzzle? Afterwards, stop into the visitors center to check out a temporary exhibit all about Cold War spy rings.

Fall Migration Banding

Sundays, Oct. 4 and 11, 7-11 a.m.

Join us for some fall migration bird banding as we try to target some uncommon species that make their way through some of Fernald's wetlands. Our hike will cover unpaved and sometimes uneven trails, so bring sturdy footwear.

Cincinnati Astronomical Society: Globular Clusters

Friday, Oct. 9, 7:30-10:30 p.m.

Join Cincinnati Astronomical Society for a presentation about globular clusters and afterwards, if the skies are clear, enjoy some time outside with CAS members and their telescopes.

Monthly Bird Walk: Former Production Area

Saturday, Oct. 10, 8-11 a.m.

We're in peak timing for our little orange-faced sparrows, such as Nelson's Sparrow and Leconte's Sparrow, so join us on a 2-3 mile walk through the former production area as we look for these little wetland specialists.

Northern Saw-Whet Owl Banding

Fridays, Oct. 16, 23, and 30, 9 p.m.-midnight

Saturdays, Oct. 17, and 24, 9 p.m.-midnight

Come out and learn about Ohio's smallest species of owl. The Northern Saw-whet Owl migrates through our area in October and November — join us for a presentation about their life cycle and a hike to go check nets to see if we've caught one.

Cold War Book Club: The Moscow Rules

Friday, Oct. 30, 6-7 p.m.

The Moscow Rules details the CIA's covert operations in Moscow during the Cold War, focusing on the innovative tactics developed to counter KGB surveillance. Come discuss the book with your fellow readers.
