

2019 Regional Workforce Development Initiatives
Scholarships, Internships, & Apprenticeships
June 19, 2019

Dr. Dorian Newton
Director, Technical Services
Newport News Nuclear BWXT-Los Alamos

N3B is providing greater career opportunities to the region in collaboration with Northern New Mexico colleges, universities and the New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions.

Registered Apprentice Program

- Nuclear Operator Apprentice Program
- Based upon Department of Energy Order 426.2 requirements.
- Initial cohort begins August 2019.
- Done in partnership with:
 - Northern New Mexico College
 - Department of Energy National Training Center.

NORTHERN
New Mexico
College

New Mexico
Department of
WORKFORCE
SOLUTIONS

SFCC
SANTA FE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

N3B Los
Alamos

Non-registered Apprenticeship Program

- 15 week Radiological Control Technician Boot camp.
- Initial cohort begins late July 2019.
- Done in partnership with University of New Mexico-Los Alamos.

- Done in partnership with:
 - Northern New Mexico College
 - University of New Mexico- Los Alamos
 - New Mexico Highlands University
 - Northern New Mexico Pueblos
- ALL majors with at least a sophomore standing and a cumulative GPA of 3.0 are encouraged to apply.

NORTHERN
New Mexico
College

H NEW MEXICO
HIGHLANDS
UNIVERSITY

- ❑ Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham's Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Challenge.
- ❑ Santa Fe Community College Environmental Workforce Development and Job Training program.

N3B *Los
Alamos*