

PITTSBURGH 2019

APRIL 16-18, 2019

Doing Business with the Department of Energy's
Office of Nuclear Energy
featuring
Idaho Operations Office,
Idaho National Laboratory
and Fluor Idaho, LLC

Trevor Bluth, DOE-Idaho
Stacey Francis, Idaho National Laboratory
Jennifer Lloyd, Fluor Idaho

New American Energy Era

18th Annual DOE Small Business Forum & Expo
APRIL 16 – 18, 2019 | PITTSBURGH, PA

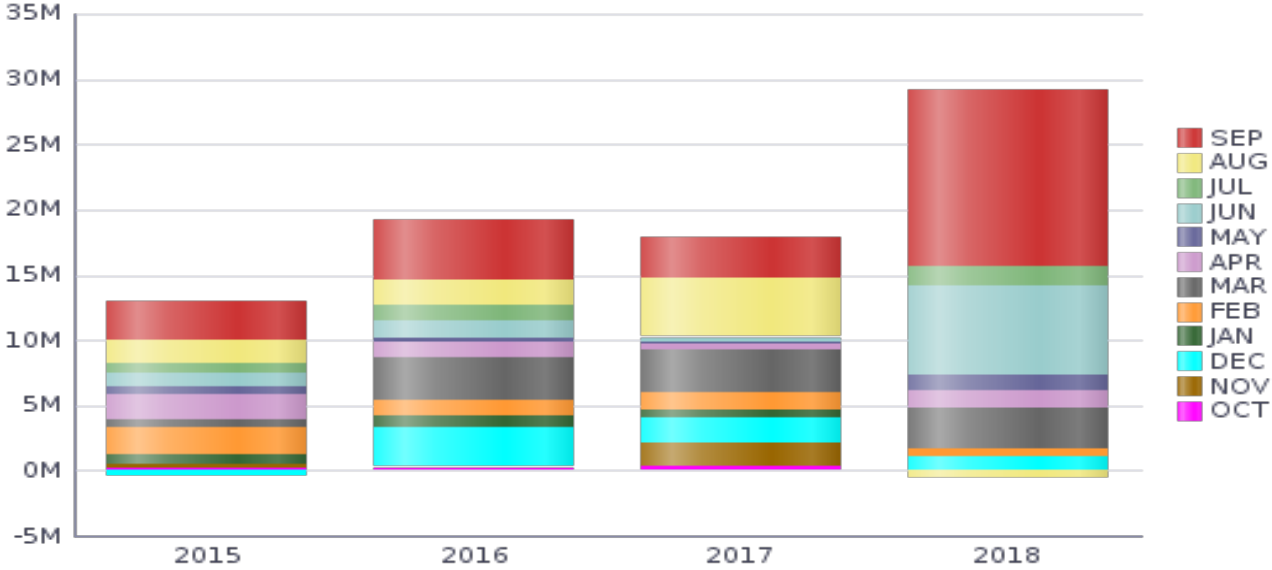

Office of Nuclear Energy (NE)

The primary mission of the Office of Nuclear Energy is to advance nuclear power as a resource capable of meeting the Nation's energy, environmental, and national security needs by resolving technical, cost, safety, proliferation resistance, and security barriers through research, development, and demonstration as appropriate.

NE provides opportunities to a broad range of socio-NE provides opportunities to a broad range of socio-economic categories of small businesses, including:

- Chickasaw Nation Industries Global Solutions, a tribal-owned small business
- Techsource, a service-disabled veteran-owned small business (SDVOSB)

Monthly Small Business Achievement

Future Planned Small Business Activities:

- Participation in DOE FY 2018 Small Business Awards; NE participated in the Evaluation Process
- Attendance at the DOE Small Business Forum and Expo in Albuquerque, NM, August 2019
- SBPM participation in Business Opportunity Sessions
- One to one outreach with small businesses

DOE FY 2018 SMALL BUSINESS AWARDS PROGRAM

- Federal Small Business Program Manager of the Year:
Trevor Bluth
- Federal Small Business Achievement of the Year (Facility Management Contractor Program Office):
Office of Nuclear Energy

Session Evaluations

Reminder:

Please complete the Speaker/Session
Evaluation Form located in the Mobile App.

Thank you!

USD E'19

Questions?

Karen Tappert

Small Business Program Manager

Office of Nuclear Energy

U.S. Department of Energy

karen.tappert@nuclear.energy.gov

301.903.5905

<https://www.energy.gov/ne/office-nuclear-energy>