One flight shy of qualifying to become a member of the Women’s Airforce Service Pilots when the program was disbanded in 1944.

Hematology technician during the Manhattan Project at Los Alamos, testing the blood of scientists who had been exposed to radiation.

Half German-American and half Native-American, her parents met as teachers at the Albuquerque Indian School.

FLOY AGNES LEE

1922 - 2018