Subject: Recent Cameron Application to DOE

Hi Brett,

Upon reviewing Cameron's recent short-term application (attached) we noticed that there is a one day gap from the expiration of the current short-term Cameron Order 3904 (set to expire June 29, 2020) and the requested effective date of July 1, 2020 within the recent application. (Both documents are attached). Can you confirm if the effective date for the new order should be June 30, 2020 instead of July 1, 2020?

Respectfully,

Kyle Moorman
