Southern Ute Indian Tribe

Self Determination through Energy Development
History

• Tribal production began in 1950’s and ramped up operations in the early 1990’s
• Tribe approved a financial plan in 1999
• Tribal organizational structure
• Established Red Willow Production in 1992
• Established Red Cedar Production in 1994
Business Operations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Red Willow Production</th>
<th>Red Cedar Gathering</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Aka Energy</td>
<td>Growth Fund Real Estate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Private Equities</td>
<td>Sky Ute Fairgrounds</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Energy</td>
<td>Southern Ute Utilities</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Oxford Solar Farm

Office of Indian Energy Match Funding

Feasibility Study
Process
Utility Purchase Negotiations
Benefit to the tribal community
Tog’oi’a k