

Federal agencies are helping to combat the climate crisis by implementing energy-efficient projects and practices that focus on climate adaptation and mitigation through building decarbonization, resilience, and fleet electrification.

LEADING BY EXAMPLE

ENERGY AWARENESS MONTH
October 2021

For resources and services that can help you implement resilient, efficient, sustainable, and secure energy and water management practices and projects, visit energy.gov/eere/femp.