SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

DOE's Office of Fossil Energy and Carbon Management¹ is in the process of rehearing DOE/FE Order No. 3643-A, issued on August 20, 2020, in Docket No. 14-96-LNG (Alaska LNG Order).² In the Alaska LNG Order, DOE authorized exports of LNG from the proposed Alaska LNG Project to countries that do not have a free trade agreement (FTA) requiring national treatment for trade in natural gas, and with which trade is not prohibited by U.S. law or policy (non-FTA countries).³

As approved by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), the Alaska LNG Project involves producing natural gas from resources on the North Slope of Alaska, transporting the natural gas on a proposed 806.9-mile-long pipeline, and exporting the natural gas in the form of LNG by vessel from a liquefaction facility to be constructed in the Nikiski area of the Kenai Peninsula in south central Alaska.⁴ Under Order No. 3643-A, Alaska LNG is currently authorized to export this LNG in a volume equivalent to 929 billion cubic feet per year (Bcf/yr) of natural gas (2.55 Bcf per day), for a term of 30 years.

On April 15, 2021, in Order No. 3643-B, DOE announced that it was granting rehearing of Order No. 3643-A under the NGA for the purpose of conducting additional environmental analysis.⁵ Subsequently, on July 2, 2021, DOE published a "Notice of Intent to Prepare a Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement for the Alaska LNG Project" under NEPA.⁶ The Draft SEIS being Alaska Gasline Development Corporation (AGDC), an independent, public corporation of the State of Alaska, holds the authorization from FERC to site, construct, and operate the proposed Alaska LNG Project.

DOE's Order on Rehearing granted a Request for Rehearing filed by Sierra Club. See Id. at 1-2, 5-6 (discussing procedural background).

issued today supplements the Final Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) for the Alaska LNG Project published by FERC on March 6, 2020, and adopted by DOE on March 16, 2020 (DOE/EIS-0512).

The Draft SEIS examines the potential upstream environmental effects associated with incremental natural gas production on the North Slope of Alaska to support Alaska LNG's exports of LNG. The SEIS also includes a life cycle analysis (LCA) calculating the greenhouse (GHG) emissions associated with exporting LNG from the proposed Project.⁷ Specifically, the LCA examines the life cycle GHG emissions for LNG exported from Alaska by vessel to import markets in Asia (the markets targeted for exports from Alaska) and potentially in other regions.

NEPA Process and Public Involvement

DOE prepared the Draft SEIS in accordance with the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) regulations at Title 40, Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 1500-1508 (40 CFR 1500-1508) and DOE NEPA implementing procedures at 10 CFR part 1021. DOE published a Notice of Intent in the Federal Register on July 2, 2021, announcing its intent to prepare a SEIS.⁸ DOE is providing opportunities for public review and comments, including a virtual public meeting, on this Draft SEIS (see DATES and ADDRESSES sections of this notice).

Signed in Washington, DC, on June 24, 2022.

⁷ DOE previously has explained that a LCA is a method of accounting for cradle-to-grave GHG emissions over a single common denominator. DOE considers GHG emissions from all processes in the LNG supply chains—from the "cradle" when natural gas is extracted from the ground, to the "grave" when electricity is used by the consumer.
