

July 21, 2020

To: John Cymbalsky, U.S. Department of Energy
Dr. Stephanie Johnson, U.S. Department of Energy

From: Helen Walter-Terrinoni, Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, AHRI

RE: Ex Parte Communication on Department of Energy's Preliminary Technical Support Document (EERE-2017-BT-STD-0022-0010) 87 Federal Register
17025

---

On July 21, 2020, Air-Conditioning, Heating and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI) staff met with representatives from the Department of Energy (DOE) to discuss the notification of availability of DOE's preliminary technical support document (pTSD) for Energy Conservation Standards for Automatic Commercial Ice Makers (ACIM), "Enforcement for Consumer Products and Commercial and Industrial Equipment" 87 Federal Register 17025. The meeting was held via teleconference. A list of attendees is provided below.

At the meeting, the group discussed DOE's preliminary analysis in the TSD regarding refrigerant transitions, cost, and equipment scope for ACIMs. The group also discussed opportunities to update the analysis.

Attendees:

John Cymbalsky, DOE
Dr. Stephanie Johnson, DOE
Helen Walter-Terrinoni, AHRI
Marie Carpizo, AHRI
Vivian Cox, AHRI
Nick Harbeck, AHRI
Greg Kalinyak, AHRI
James Spalding, AHRI

Chinmoy Banerjee, Follett Ice
Jim Godiska, Follett Ice
Stephen Schaefer, Hoshizaki
Andy Euclide, Manitowoc Ice
Bill Olson, Manitowoc Ice
Chris Salatino, Scotsman Ice
Daryl Erbs, Welbilt

Sincerely,
Helen Walter-Terrinoni
Vice President, Regulatory Affairs
Air-Conditioning, Heating and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI)