

Interested in Becoming a BETO Project Reviewer?

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) Office of Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE) Bioenergy Technologies Office (BETO) is always in need of subject matter experts to review research funding applications.

Applying is easy:

1. Register:

Complete the application in EERE Exchange (see box to right).

2. Email Us:

Send your resume or CV to eere\_bioenergy@ee.doe.gov. ■

Apply to Be a BETO Reviewer

1. Go to the EERE Funding Opportunity Exchange website and create a new user account: eere-exchange.energy.gov/Registration.aspx
2. On the Registration page, select “Reviewer.”
3. Under “Reviewer Registration,” complete all four sections:
  - a. General Information — Provide your contact information, resume, and answer a few questions about your background.
  - b. Account Information — Create your account username and password.
  - c. Areas of Expertise — Select your primary and functional areas of expertise.
  - d. Education and Experience — Add your education, organizational affiliations, awards, and publications.
4. Check the box to certify that the information provided is accurate and complete.
5. Select the “Complete Reviewer Registration” button.