Notice to Aggrieved Individual regarding allegations of harassment:
Pursuant to requirements of the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Counselor must refer allegations of harassment filed in an informal EEO complaint to DOE's separate Anti-Harassment Program (AHP) located in DOE's Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (HC), Office of Policy, Labor and Employee Relations (OPLER). DOE's AHP was established in 2022 by DOE Policy Memorandum #102, Prevention and Elimination of Prohibited Harassing Conduct. An EEO counselor must refer allegations of harassment to the AHP, even when the alleged harassed employee requests that an allegation of harassment not be referred to the AHP. When an EEO Counselor refers an allegation of harassment to the AHP, your anonymity may be protected, if you have elected anonymity in the informal EEO complaint process and if you wish to remain anonymous in the referral to the AHP. The DOE AHP is separate and distinct from the Department's EEO complaint process, which is established by EEOC regulation and managed by the DOE Office of Civil Rights and Equal Employment Opportunity. The AHP does not replace or affect an employee's right to file an equal employment opportunity (EEO) complaint.

- If mediation is unsuccessful, your EEO complaint will be reinstated - you do not give up your right to participate in the EEO complaint process.

If you choose to participate in mediation, and the mediation is not successful, you must notify the EEO Office, in writing, within 5 calendar days of the end of mediation.
