General Comment

As a mexican, I know here are less restrictions to everything due to corruption and money. I understand that to USA, it could be the cheapest and most convenient way to make the deal. But there are things money CAN'T pay, like they biodiversity hosted un that gulf, that are the resources for the people living around. People make a living from the territory that will be (more or less) polluted. I know the US cares for their citizens. Well, we mexicans are citizens from another country, but from the same world. I live in a state with it's territory near California Gulf, so feel I should be asked if I am ok with all of this and I AM NOT.

Money and your bussiness don't matter to me, it is MY LIFE (andnother millions) that will be changed for your decisions
