A time of climate crisis, and trying to reduce emissions of both CO2 and methane, efforts to produce and export natural gas endangers the health and welfare of the citizens of the United States currently and generations to come. Climate change and the man-made nature of it is undeniable. Because of these facts, natural gas exports are not in the public interest

Finally, I request and extension of time to comment and intervene in this proposal Because this comment period was not widely announced, we have only learned of it this weekend, not allowing affected parties enough time to effectively comment or intervene.
