Comment:	In article wash post. Boston globe, daily , and others newspapers today reads a The Russian ship known as The Gaselys is a Russian natural gas (LNG) which arrived in Boston Harbor on Sunday is now will be offload gas for use in New England. this is nuts, and crazy, who is running the energy dept ?? Why is New England blocking pipelines from the Marcellus, domestically produced gas that is cheaper, if they need Home heating gas ; why not AMERICAN GAS ???? outrageous * ↻
