LAB PARTNERING SERVICE

Connecting investors with experts and resources for energy technologies.

The Lab Partnering Service is a service of the U.S. Department of Energy's (DOE) Energy Investor Center. The service provides investors, and other parties looking to advance energy innovation, a single location to connect with leading DOE national laboratory experts to quickly answer inquiries as well as discover opportunity partnerships. Our goal is to provide the information needed to make informed decisions. Learn more.
