Comment: DOE_FRDOC_0001 Legal notice 10 CFR 590.310 - Opportunity for additional procedures Services in Annexed territories may not be against free trade practices however because of past experiences and acknowledged of the unethical practices they may be suffering from PTSD. Major events of discrimination and violations of bodily integrity can have long term psychological effects on individuals and cause them to do things out of the ordinary and conduct experiments of any sort just to see the reaction or response. The ability to hide public information creates a unfair competition and the acts of unjust enrichment and misrepresentation after the satisfaction of an agreement is a breach. Free trade is perfectly acceptable if restitution is awarded to certain Clinical Data operators who did not receive equal opportunity or due process of law. In good Faith *🌐
