5/26/2010 5:30pm EST	Department of Energy Loan Programs Dan Tobin Senior Investment Officer	Lobbyist asked several questions on behalf of one of her clients regarding the Supplemental Appropriations language and credit subsidy: "One in particular has asked the following question about the Supplemental Appropriations language which appropriates $9 billion for renewable energy loan guarantees. Can you help give me some direction on how to answer him?" I responded that FFB is listed as a suitable lender in the solicitations and that Section 1703 applicants were required to cover credit subsidy costs while Section 1705 applicants were not (funds appropriated for credit subsidy under Section 1705).
